1. The former construction offices at Dessau which were originally intended for aircraft designers, and which were then occupied by the Volkspolizei when the East German air force program was cancelled following the riots of 17 June 1953, are being vacated by the Volkspolizei and are once again to house aircraft specialists.
2. Engineers are once more being hired for the Dessau installation. Engineers are being offered starting wages of 4,000 DME per month. Technicians are being offered 2,000 DME per month. Master craftsmen earn from 1,000 to 1,500 DME per month.
